FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1919

Be prepared for March 15th.
Uncle Sam will not wait a day longer.

It's pay the income tax then or take the consequences.

Character is not made in a day but it is frequently lost over night.

A degenerate can easily fool women by extreme politeness, and he usually does.

We doubt if the League of Nations is worrying all the people of the earth, especially the Mexicans.

America is the best and most advanced nation in the world.

There would not be half the fun in life were there no struggle to make both ends meet.

They may talk about the men all they please but mighty few married women would change places with the spinsters.

Don't get down hearted because you happen to make a mistake. Each time a smart man makes a mistake he learns something.

You never can tell. Many a man is all right in his way, but his way is all wrong.

The Ohio Senate has passed the bill forbidding the display of the red flag. The only red that should be displayed as a flag in this country is the red in the American flag.

February left us in real winter style but the advent of March with weather of the lamb variety has brought out many a spring hat among the ladies.

It will require $1,200,000,000 for the next twenty-five years to pay off the war debt which means that we will have the income tax with us for some time to come.

A statesman desires influence, a politician votes. This may explain the attitude of ninety-nine per cent of the public men on the League of Nations question.

Paderewski failed to be statesman enough to overcome the Red sentiment in Poland and be elected president of the proposed republic. Those politicians in this country that have the career of the noted statesman can now drop any idea that it takes any unusual ability to manage a political campaign.

A couple of years ago Congressman Fess went over into Pennsylvania and delivered several speeches against Senator Penrose, who he charged as a corrupt politician and one the Republican party could not recognize. During the Congressman's campaign for speakership Penrose informed Chairman Hays of the Republican National Committee that if he wanted the support of the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress he had better take the Fess' speakership boom out and bury it. The next day Fess announced his withdrawal from the race, which would indicate that politics even among the big guns in Washington is played under the same rules as practiced in the precincts.

Singleness of Purpose.
"It may sound strange," said the boarding-house bachelor, "but a lot of men are convinced that the easiest way to win the battle of life is to fight it single-handed."

PASSING OF THE RUBIE

Almost anyone can remember the day when the boys of the town used to ridicule the boys from the farm, calling them "clod-boppers", "hay-seeds", "rubies", and "country jakes."

It is rare that we hear such expressions now, isn't it?

The "hayseed" has passed on. In his stead we have a rural business man, a student, a country gentleman. We know intimately the farmers around here, know a man whose dress it not greatly different from the dress of the average business man or mechanic. This man's son drives his automobile as skillfully as the son of the city banker—and with far better judgment as a rule. His daughter is none behind her town girl friends in the manner and style of dress. His wife can belong to clubs and other organizations and yet she can cook.

And the man with a "scheme" has learned that the farm district is not the easy thing as in the old days. Labor on the farm is not the heavy drudgery it used to be, and the boys of the farm, today may attend and do attend our best schools and colleges.

The telephone keeps the farmer in daily touch with the markets and his daily paper informs him of current news the world over.

The vaudeville entertainer who dresses in a slouched straw hat, with hay protruding from the torn crown; with one shoe and one boot on his feet and a carpet bag and large umbrella, lacks much of success in impersonating the agriculturist of our acquaintance.

Some of the people of the city may be fooled for they do not know they may imagine themselves of finer day. They may know some things the farmer doesn't know, such as where to go to see the best shows or at the highest priced dinners. Yet they cannot distinguish an oak tree from a swing tree.

Truly the day of the "rube" has passed.

CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY.

The voters of Ohio favored classification of property for taxation but by a court decision it was laid aside.

The legislature will submit the amendment again and even a larger vote favorable is anticipated. The present case of classification can be cited with automobile owners and of course this means at least twenty-five per cent of the people.

Automobile owners will be compelled to pay the personal property tax as usual and under the new proposed bill in the legislature, which will like a pass, autos will be licensed from $5 to $85 depending on the size of the car or truck.

If we had classification of property the license tax would stand alone and there would be no personal property tax. Classification applies in many such instances and should be heartily supported when submitted to a vote again.

A "Bull."

One evening, after the flies had been unusually troublesome, an Irish mistress spread insect powder round the windows and other places in the kitchen where the flies congregated. In the morning she asked the servant girl if there was not a great many dead flies in the kitchen. "Yes, there are, mum," replied the maid. "The room's alive with them!"

Live In Extinct Volcano.
In southern Tunisia is a mountain of considerable size called Douirat, which once upon a time was an active volcano. Bubbles of volcanic gases made it a veritable honeycomb of caves which in these days are inhabited. In fact, the whole mountain is a city—a human anthill, densely populated.

BIBLE CLASSES GIVE DINNER.

The Men's Bible class and the Dorcas Bible class of the U. P. church gave a dinner Tuesday evening in the church parlors honoring Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hastings, who have long been connected with the congregation and the various branches of its work.

An excellent chicken dinner was served the one hundred and twenty-five present, after which came a number of interesting talks. Mrs. W. W. Troute, president of the Dorcas class, presided. Prof. Allen and W. J. Tarboxeach gave a talk relative to the appreciation of their work and support. Merle Joba gave an interesting descriptive talk of his experience with the e. a. e. f. in France.

The Dorcas class presented Mrs. Hastings with a silver tea spoon and both Mr. and Mrs. Hastings responded, thanking their many friends for the courtesy and friendship shown them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hastings are now located in Xenia, where the former is connected with the Eavey Wholesale Grocery Co.

Protecting Turkeys From Coyotes.

In certain parts of the West flocks of domestic turkeys on frontier farms are protected from attacks by coyotes by tying small bells to the necks of the gobblers. The tinkle of these bells is sufficient, in most cases, to keep the animals away, while not infrequently unprotected flocks which have wandered far from home are annihilated by the beasts.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

How Cabinet Has Grown.

George Washington had only five cabinet officers: secretary of state, secretary of the treasury, secretary of war, postmaster general and an attorney general. A secretary of the navy was added under John Adams, a secretary of the interior under Taylor and a secretary of agriculture under Cleveland. The department of commerce and labor was created in 1903, under Roosevelt, and the department of labor was made separate under Wilson in 1913.

Inch of Rain.

"An inch of rain" refers to the marks on a standard rain gauge as used for record purposes by the United States weather bureau. An inch of rain means 101 tons of water distributed over one acre of land.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Copyright, 1914, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 9

JOSHUA, PATRIOT AND LEADER.

LESSON TEXT—Joshua 1:1-9. GOLDEN TEXT—Be strong and of a good courage.—Joshua 1:9. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Joshua 1:1-11. PRIMARY TOPIC—A story of a brave leader. Memory Verse—Joshua 1:9. SENIOR TOPIC—The right leader. Memory Verse—Deut. 1:17. INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—When to be brave.

The book of Joshua is a history of the conquest of the promised land and its apportionment among the tribes of Israel. It takes its name from its principal character—Joshua. During the wilderness journey he was Moses' minister, and captain of his army. When Moses was denied the privilege of going over the Jordan, Joshua was appointed to the leadership of Israel. Being so long faithful as a servant, he was made a ruler. Only those who have themselves learned to obey are fit to rule. Moses, the representative of the law, brought Israel to the borders of Canaan. Joshua was the man chosen to lead the people into the place of rest. The name "Joshua" has the same derivation as the name "Jesus." The law (Moses) was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ; but Christ (our Joshua) has given us victory and rest.

I. Joshua's Call (1:1,2). Moses, God's servant, is dead, but God's work must go on. He continues his work by calling others to take up "the good battle" of his workers. Joshua, no doubt, was sorrowful over the loss of his master, but there is no time for mourning. The best way to cure our griefs and sorrows is to take up courageously the burdens and responsibilities which our leaders have laid down.

II. God Renews His Promise of the Land to Israel (1:3,4). The promise had been made to Abraham, and renewed to Isaac, Jacob and Moses. It is now renewed to Israel when they are about to enter upon its possession. The borders of the land were quite large (v. 4).

III. Joshua's Faith (1:5,6). The wilderness and the Jordan, even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast. The nearest it was ever possessed was during the reigns of David and Solomon, though not then fully realized. "This country still belongs to the Jews; and in God's own time they shall possess it. Their getting possession of this land was due entirely to themselves. God promised them, that wherever their feet set upon the land it was theirs. If they failed to secure possession it was because they failed to claim it. We would all enjoy larger blessings if we would claim them."

IV. Conditions of Blessings in the Land (1:8-9). 1. "Be strong and of a good courage" (v. 6). His mission was to go in and divide the land among the tribes for an inheritance. God could not bless him if he should play the coward.

2. Unwavering obedience to the word of God (v. 7). In a land of idolatry it requires much courage to obey the true God. The prosperity and good success was conditioned upon unwavering obedience to God's commands. In all his work he must conform his life to the law of God. To pass from the path outlined therein would bring disaster and ruin. In order to accomplish this the law of the Lord must constantly be in his mouth. He was to meditate therein day and night. If we are to prosper in our Christian experience there must be that regular and reverent study of God's Word. Joshua renders prompt obedience. He did not stop to cavil, but at once gave orders for the march. God made the plan and gave the directions. His responsibility was to go forward without doubting, taking possession of the inheritance.

Sacrifice. A work that requires no sacrifice does not count for much in fulfilling God's plans. But what is commonly called sacrifice is the best, happiest use of one's self and one's resources—the best investment of time, strength, and means. He who makes no such sacrifice is most to be pitied. He is a heathen because he knows nothing of God.—Samuel Chapman Armstrong.

Thy Friend. Make not thy friend too cheap to thee, nor thyself to thy friend.—Fallor.

Great Political Truth. Half a dozen men control every city, three or four men control every country town, two or three men control every country neighborhood. It is the natural law and no system of government will change it.—Topeka Capital.

How True, Ah, How True! The children at school were telling their ambitions and reasons for them. Finally, Frances, who came from a home in which peace was as common as air, spoke up. "I want to be married," she told them. "I wish a husband to scold all the time."—Indianapolis Star.

Wonderful Automatic Clock.
The dials of the world's largest pocket clock, erected in the center of the new $10,000,000 wholesale terminal at Los Angeles, can be seen from any part of the 20 acres covered by the market place. The clock, which is 50 feet high, automatically operates its own lighting system, turns it on at sundown and shuts it off at daylight, and winds and sets itself.

Writing Without Punctuation.
Chinese do not need punctuation or any other mark. It might be doubtful from the foreign point of view whether a language is possible that has done away with punctuation. The fact is, however, that punctuation is no longer necessary for Chinese. The characters, besides performing a function of their own, take over that also of the period, comma, hyphen, interrogation, exclamation mark, etc.

Custom Had Origin Long Ago.
The almost universal habit of turning aside the head and suppressing the sneeze or cough has an interesting origin. It is derived from human experience. In the middle ages (and probably much earlier), when frequent plagues of various diseases swept away whole populations in Europe, it was suspected and even believed that infection was conveyed by coughing and sneezing. Hence the adoption of the precaution.

It is bad manners and bad business etiquette for two employees of the same office to discuss the personal affairs of fellow workers or of their employer. Almost every worker is in possession of some private information as a result of his work, but that should be regarded as a trust not to be betrayed. It is also bad manners to inquire as to the wages or the particular duties of fellow workmen.—Biddy Bye.

STATE URGED TO TAKE OVER BRYAN FARM.

Director Charles Thorn of the Ohio Experimental station has urged the state to take over the John Bryan farm for agricultural experimental purposes under the will. The students of Antioch, Cedarville and Wilberforce colleges could have the use of it for experimental purposes. The Bryan will is to be contested by the widow which may keep the state from having any claim on the farm.

DIDN'T GET THE HOG.

The night that the chickens were stolen from Arthur Peterson a hog weighing about 160 pounds, the property of Wm. Maddox, was killed in his feed lot. As Mr. Maddox resides on the same road with Mr. Peterson and only a short distance away it is generally supposed that the hog was to be taken away after the chickens were secured. The fact that Mr. Peterson was so close on to the supposed thieves they had no time to stop for the hog.

A TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

R. A. Murdock, local agent for the Ford tractor demonstrated this useful invention on his farm Tuesday afternoon and its work was all that could be asked. Two fourteen inch plows were hooked on and the tractor moved right along without the least trouble. Farmers are finding it rather expensive to feed a couple of extra teams that are not absolutely necessary except a few weeks in the spring. The tractor costs nothing for up-keep when idle.

DAYTON AUTO SHOW.

One of the finest auto shows ever given in this section of the state is now in progress in Dayton, the exhibition being held at the large government building just south of the National Cash Register Co. Several hundred cars are on exhibit as well as the DeLaval D-4 plane with exhibits of the famous Liberty motors. The show is worth the trip of anyone who cares for a close inspection of the models of airplanes and army tanks. The show closes Saturday evening.

COUNCIL MEETING REPORT

Council met Monday evening in regular session, all members being present. Bills to the amount of $232 were ordered paid. Reports of various committees were approved. Action was taken on the new telephone rates, Member Lowry being instructed to confer with Solicitor Smith as to action leading to the restoration of the old rates.

BOUND OVER TO COURT.

Leonard Nooks, colored, was arrested for the alleged theft of chickens from Arthur Peterson, and bound over to the grand jury under a $800 bond. He is now in the county jail.

OPENS CREAM STATION.

VICTORY LOAN WILL BE SOLD TO PUBLIC JUST AS OTHER ISSUES WERE

RUMORS THAT BANKS WERE TO BE CALLED ON TO TAKE FIFTH LOAN CORRECTED BY SECRETARY GLASS.

RUMORS and unauthorized statements which have been spread abroad over the country to the effect that there was to be no Fifth Liberty Loan have been brought to the attention of Secretary of the Treasury Glass. The secretary reiterates his statements—

That there will be a Fifth Liberty Loan;

That it will be a popular one—sold to the people;

That there is no idea on the part of the government to sell the bonds to the banks;

That the Fifth Liberty Loan will be floated this Spring, undoubtedly beginning in the latter part of April.

The financial heads of the government are perfecting the plans for an issue that will meet the requirements of the time and the Central Liberty Loan committee of the Fourth Federal Reserve district at Cleveland is well along in the task of laying a foundation for a campaign which will outlast in intensity any of the four preceding campaigns.

Stories emanating from Washington and discussing the preliminary plans of legislators may have a tendency to befog the reader. It must be remembered that these stories are speculation, merely reflecting the mind-workings of the men who will ultimately have to narrow down to some one procedure. Enough has already been definitely settled to permit the secretary of the treasury to make the statements above and to emphasize them.

Down and Out—But His Tongue Still Wags

THE HUN is still able to whisper. One of his favorite subjects is Liberty Bonds. The bonds are absolutely the best sound in the world so he dare not attack them openly. He whispers to you to sell them, hoping to demoralize the market. And he has about as much chance of doing this as he had of winning the war. It is characteristic Hun stupidity. Every time you are approached to sell your Liberty Bond or to trade it for stock in some unknown and unestablished project, remember it is the voice of the Hun speaking. Then take another grip on your Liberty Bonds and hold tight. Keep those you have and be ready to buy more when the Victory Liberty Loan is offered for sale in April.

A Miser, A Woman And Two Stars---

A miser, born in a land afar, Who'd gained a fortune over here, Where Liberty is the guiding star, Looked up from his gold with a bitter leer. "I got it by pinching and going with out," They call me greedy, I am," said he. "The Nation's call to lend I sound. For bonds they'll get no gold from me!"
A woman gazed on a star of gold. She'd given all she had to give, And sacrificed to lend, 'twas told, "That Liberty and Land might live. And I'll lend again and again," she said, "To help to remedy war's ills, And to keep true faith with our hero By helping pay our war-time bills."

Liberty Loan Levity

SHAVE 'ER CLOSE!
Just a half-wit, they called Barber Blaney. Barber knew, though, some day would be rainy. So he shaved and he shaved. And he saved and he saved—And bought bonds—Now they call Blaney brainy.
